SERVICE

Volunteer driven...

What type of service do we provide?

Shoalhaven Community Transport provides quality door to door transport, to assist eligible people maintain an independent lifestyle. Service is provided mainly by our dedicated team of friendly volunteers.

Am I eligible?

Community Transport is available to people living independently within the Shoalhaven area who are frail aged or have a disability, their carers, and people who are transport disadvantaged.

To qualify for our service you must meet the eligibility criteria. If you are over the age of 65 (or 50 for Aboriginal/Torres Strait Islander) you must ring My Aged Care on 1800 200 422 to be assessed. If you are younger, please contact your nearest office for assessment by one of our friendly office staff.

- Nowra (02) 4423 6044
- Ulladulla (02) 4454 0840

Where can we take you?

We will happily take you and your carer to:

- Medical appointments in your local and other areas, including Sydney, Wollongong, Canberra and Batemans Bay
- Shopping (weekly or fortnightly)
- Visit family or friends in a Hospital or Nursing Home

- Banking and other business
- Social activities

Preference will be given to service users attending essential appointments (usually medical).

When is transport available?

Our main transport service is available Monday to Friday. Weekend transport for individual service users and groups can be arranged when volunteers are available. Shoalhaven Community Transport Service Taxi Vouchers can be used at any time.

Bookings

To avoid disappointment, please make your booking as early as possible after receiving your appointment.

What does it cost?

We keep the expected contributions to a minimum. Please ask for the contribution amount when making your booking. Inability to meet the full contribution does not exclude you from receiving transport. If you have difficulty with payment, please contact your local office for assistance.

Your mobility

You must be able to get in and out of the vehicle with limited assistance, and manage alone or with your carer during appointments. Hoists are fitted to most buses to allow easier access for those who have difficulty with steps.

Our vehicles

Our fleet is modern and includes:

- Cars
- Vans and Buses – most are wheelchair accessible

We also use local Taxi transport to extend service delivery.
